

A DICKENS OF A CHRISTMAS TRIP

WHEN: Dec. 6 - 7th Sat./Sunday - (Overnight trip by bus)

WHERE: Wellsboro, Pa.

Celebrate this Christmas by stepping back in time by joining us in Wellsboro, Pa.'s "Dickens of a Christmas Festival".

The Dickens Festival traditionally includes Craft and Food Vendors lining Main Street. The vendors will be in Victorian costume and offer hand crafted items, ceramics, Christmas Ornaments, wrought iron, wreaths, and much more.

Tasty Dickensonian treats include pie tarts, hot cider, baked goods, fresh roasted peanuts, hot apple dumplings, soups, baked potatoes, and much more. The ever popular "Dickens Players" roving performers dressed in proper Victorian attire, perform all manner of entertainment. Local bands, choruses and dancers join in the fun as well. Special tours of churches and local historical buildings, a model train exhibit, and much more. We will also tour Millionaires' Row and the Taber Musuem in Williamsport.

Saturday we will tour all of downtown Wellsboro and see all of the above. In the evening we will see all of Wellsboro lit with Christmas decorations and see the Carolers singing and strolling the streets.

We have a nice Saturday night dinner planned. On Sunday we will tour Millionaires Row and the Dickens of a Christmas Taber Musuem.

Pricing includes bus transportation, 1 nights lodging, 4 meals, admission to Taber Musuem, driving tour of Millionaires' Row, and all taxes and gratuities. Pricing --- Single - $173.00/pp Double - $134.00/pp
