First Readings:

NONE

Cruiser and Waxers: No report given

Speed Events: No report given

OLD BUSINESS:

Bowling Challenge: E.J. Andres said that there were 23 bowlers with two games won by both clubs. But York CC average was 125.79 and CVCC's was 125.57. Good Luck new year to both teams.

Doc. Holidays Comedy Club: Forty people have signed up to attend.

Pocono's: To date there are approximate 70 entries. More instructors are needed and they would like a few more students AND 29 workers are needed.

Awards Banquet: To date the sign-up is light on attendance. There is still time to sign up and pay for a nice evening that is all about the club and what the members do. PLEASE PLAN TO ATTEND

Support the Troops: Larry Keiser is still looking for donations of shampoo's, toothpaste, toothbrushes, puzzle books or anything that a service person (man or woman) can use while serving abroad. Bring your donations along to the meetings or send any money donation to Larry Keiser. The Carlisle AmVets will take care of the shipping. Larry thanked the club for all that was already donated. He was overwhelmed.

NEW BUSINESS:

Fly-In at New Cumberland Airport: May 2, will be the annual Fly-in to support Spina Bifida.

July 2 - Club Meeting: Because CVCC will not meet on this date. July is usually the picnic month, so watch for that date.

Sanctioned Events Scheduled: Up and coming dates were covered. Please check the happening calendar.

Renova's Fall Foliage Festival: A plaque was received recognizing CVCC for their support and contribution.

National Corvette Museum: If anyone is planning to visit the Museum in Bowling Green, Kentucky, see Bob Bowen for passes.

The Distributor - Newsletter: Bud Long has agreed to be the new editor. "Thank you Bud".

Additional Cruises: Brian Demnicki discussed two cruises with CV Classic Car and Spring Carlisle. More details and information To follow.

Teen Driving School: Bill Sangrey discussed progress that he is making.

The meeting was adjourned by all.

Name Tag Drawing: Was won by Kelly Lebo.

50 - 50 Drawing: Bob Bowen and Linda Hamilton each won $42.00
